Lincoln Lore,
Fort Wayne, Ind.

Dear Sirs:

I am writing to see if you can tell me where I might be able to buy a ring like the one described below. It is for a man who is a great admirer of Lincoln.

A mans ring, of yellow gold, with a stone of some kind on top on which is carved a head of Abraham Lincoln.

That is the kind I prefer. But if you do not know where I can get such a one, information on any other kind of a Lincoln ring would be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Fay Everland,

My dear Madam:

I regret I cannot tell you where we might be able to discover a cameo ring of Abraham Lincoln.

I have seen them on occasions but do not know of any place where they are kept in stock and I have an opinion that they are not very often found in jewelry stores.

You might write Tiffani Jewelers, New York who are probably advised on this than we are.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

Looking at an october issue of Hobbies I saw your ad about Linden items. I have a 14 Karat white gold ring with the head of Linden on black base this of course is a cameo. white head on black. raised head. I would be willing to sell you this ring for 12.00 If you want it I bought this some years ago from a old jeweler who went out of business. and I often wondered who made the cameo. as I never saw one in a ring before. If you want this ring I will send it to you insured.

Truly yours

My dear Mr. Bittner:

I regret not having replied to your letter before this, but it would be almost impossible for us to tell whether we wanted the ring which you advertise without seeing it. If you care to send it for our inspection, we will immediately send you a check for $12.00 if we wish to keep it.

Very truly yours,
